

Weatherhead Center
FOR INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
HARVARD UNIVERSITY

The Weatherhead Center invites you to hear our Undergraduate Associates present the results of their thesis research. We award summer travel grants for senior thesis research in international affairs.

UNDERGRADUATE THESIS CONFERENCE February 7–8, 2019

US FOREIGN POLICY

- American and British Visions for Southeast Asia Evolved in Crisis and Framed Escalation in Vietnam (1961–1964)
- Nazis in America: The Secret CIA Programs that Shaped the New Global Order
- Nationalism and Politicization of World War I-Era European Scientists

INEQUALITY POLITICS & POLICY IN LATIN AMERICA

- Deconstructing Corruption Discourses in the 2018 Sonoran Elections
- Cuban Musicians Working in the Tourism Industry
- LGBT Activism and the Decriminalization of Homosexuality in Guyana

GLOBAL ACCESS TO RIGHTS ISSUES

- Corporate Responsibility, Social Outcomes, and Environmental Implications in the Global Cacao Market
- Labor Outcomes for Roma Informal Settlement Residents of France
- “Water ATMs” on Informal Water Vending in Nairobi Settlements

COMPARATIVE ISSUES OF IDENTITY & ACCESS

- Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder Treatment Gaps in Indigenous Canadian Children
- A Transnational Comparative Analysis of Queer Rights Activism
- UN Humanitarian Images and the Construction of Global Disability

CURRENT ISSUES OF COLONIALISM & DEVELOPMENT

- African Officials' Attitudes toward the “China Model”
- Environmental Racism, Settler Colonialism, and the Testing Fields of South Australia
- Challenges to NGO Development in Modern Russia

HISTORICAL ISSUES OF COLONIALISM & DEVELOPMENT

- Reinterpreting Gilberto Freyre's Casa-Grande & Senzala, 1902–1940
- City Development and the Trans-Siberian Railroad
- Publishing Industry in Qing, China and the 1832 Voyage of Lord Amherst

For full conference details visit:
conferences.wcfia.harvard.edu/undergraduate_thesis